Testimonials

"The ability to deliver meaningful, impactful, and relevant information that has value for the audience, in a manner that's both concise yet entertaining is truly a honed skill. Mr. Reese has a solid command of these skills and it's evident in how successful his presentations are received."

Frank Di Lorenzo, Jr., Client Relationship Manager

"Michael offers expertise that is not common with technology experts because he has experience working in law enforcement, with law firms, and as a cyber security expert. Michael is a superior presenter and I recommend him as a guest speaker to any organization interested in learning about his many areas of expertise."

Attorney and Professor Julia Brynelson, J.D., LL.M.

"Michael has a vision, communicates it effectively, and drives all evolutions to that end goal."

AJ Price, Director Global Network Operations, Nike
